Running Order

---

- 14:00      Welcome
Iain Armstrong QC (Head of the Compass Reparation Group)
- 14:15      Plenary Session I
Christopher Purchas QC, Crown Office Chambers, London
Clinical Negligence
- 14:45      Break out Session I (a choice of 3 from the following workshops)
- 1. Liability for Third Party Crime - Andrew Smith QC
Mitchell v Glasgow City Council is going to the House of Lords. The question is: under what circumstances can a person be liable for the criminal actions of another party, including, as in this case, murder?
  - 2. Spencer Franks - Kay Springham and Richard Pugh
The decision of the House of Lords of Spencer-Franks v Kellog Brown and Root has radically changed the understanding of work place equipment cases. What does it mean for future actions and why is it relevant to workplaces?"
  - 3. Care Costs- Who Pays? - D I Mackay QC
Recent decisions on the cases of personal care costs have thrown some doubt over the clarity of the law. This session will examine whether the cases of Sowden and Crofton apply in Scotland.
  - 4. Crown Office Chambers, London: Recent Developments in England - Speakers TBC
  - 5. Six Pack Regulations - Astrid Smart and Yvonne Waugh
An update on the six, most widely quoted health and safety regulations.
- 15:30      Coffee Break
- 15:45      Breakout Session II (a choice of 3 from list above)
- 16:30      Breakout Session III (a choice of 3 from list above)
- 17:15      Plenary Session II
Peter Milligan, Compass Chambers
Computer 3D Modelling in Court: Advanced computer 3D modelling reconstructions of road traffic accidents have recently been used in several cases in Scotland. Peter Milligan looks at the benefits of this latest technology.
- 17:45      Conclusions and close
- 18:00      Drinks and canapés
